901 Irate Petition Signers Ask That Council Repeal Wash Action

No Action Taken; Referred To Engineer and Attorney

Nine hundred and one signers of a petition to the City Council was presented by the president of the Foothill Areas Association, Mr. George Williams, asking the City Council to repeal or recind its action of approval of the LACFCD design concept of the repair work of the Sierra Madre Wash as passed at the meeting of October 25.

In presenting the petition, Mr. Williams noted to the Council that only 384 of the cigners were residents of the Canyon and that the petition was secured in five days. In presenting the petition Mr. Williams made the following remarks:

"Attached herewith, you will find 901 signatures of residents of the City of Sierra Madre, protesting the Council's approval of Los Angeles Flood Control District design concept passed October 25, 1966.

"This number of signatures has been obtained in only a five day period, showing great dissatisfaction with your decision.

"We respectfully submit that this decision is untimely and does not reflect the majority feeling of the citizens you represent.

"The wishes of the people are defined in the petition."

The preamble of the petition before the 901 signers read as follows: ,

"To the City Council
Sierra Madre, California

"The Congress of the United States of America, in approving funds to inititate construction on the Sierra Madre Wash, provided that these funds should not be expended 'until complete information concerning all phases of the project plan have been submitted for review and approval of the City of Sierra Madre.'

"Without the submission of such information your body at its meeting of October 22, 1966, adopted a resolution approving the 'Flood Control concept' for the proposed work.

"The undersigned believe that the Flood Control concept fails to safeguard the lives and property of the residents and will waste, $900,000 of the taxpayers' money if the plan is adopted; further it affords no protection whatsoever from the 185,000 cubic yards of excess mud and debris that would be present and would inundate a vast, heavily popu-

Christmas Plans Materializing

Chamber of Commerce Plans Future Activity

At the monthly meeting of Chamber of Commerce board of directors on Tuesday, November 1, the results of the first Chamber-sponsored turkey shoot were reviewed, and although fund-raising profits were modest, it was suggested and agreed that this would be an enjoyable annual affair and should be continued, with improvements gained from this trial experience.

President Delahooke has agreed to represent the Chamber on a city committee to review the schedule of business licenses, which has not been increased for some ten years, through overhead of clerical work for these has doubled. Councilman Ed Wagner, who spoke briefly to present the reasons why the city's budget as now set up does not allow for a new civic center for several years without going to a bond issue, also added that other city license fees will be reviewed to bring fees up to costs of processing them.

Jerry Asher reported that leters requesting nomina-

Meeting Scheduled

The monthly meeting of the Little League organization will be held at the Memorial Park House at 8 p.m. on November 15.

On the agenda this month will be the election of team managers for the coming 1967 baseball season.

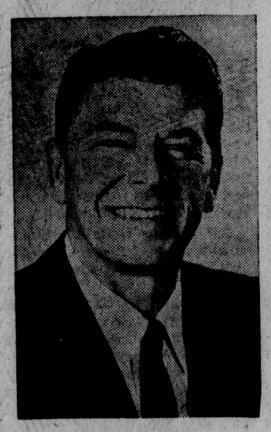
This meeting will be open to all those men interested in the Little League program in Sierra Madre.

Advertising Campaign Scheduled

Carl Hansen, local Ford dealer, expects to be even busier from now on, because of the "Ford is First — Number One Seller in California" four-week advertising campaign to the tune of $300,000 which is being launched November 9.

In addition to large advertisements in 125 newspapers and 342 outdoor panels, there will be two new animated color commercials faturing the popular Ford Dog and Son of Ford Dog. These will be in addition to the regularly sponsored Ford Dealer Association shows, "The Happy Wanderers" on KCOP, KTTV Sports Specials and the Danny Villanueva Sports Show on KMEX-TV.

The State Followed Sierra Madre



RONALD REAGAN
Our New Governor

The State of California followed Sierra Madre and gave us a new Governor and Lieutenant Governor by what looks like a very substantial majority. Governor Brown conceded his defeate around 10 p.m.

Unofficially it was reported that Southern California cast approximately 83.2 per cent of the registered votes while Sierra Madre cast a total of 5,302 votes for approximately 86.5 per cent of the registered voters.

On the most interesting contests Sierra Madre votes tallied such:

Reagan	3741
Brown	1223
Anderson	1083
Finch	3883
Cranston	1367
Flournoy	3641
Arditto	1449
Richardson	3077

Commission To Meet

The Sierra Madre Parks and Recreation Commission's regular meeting will be held on Wednesday, November 16, at 8 p.m. in the City Hall Council Chambers, 55 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., Sierra Madre. The meeting is regularly held on the fourth Thursday of the month, but conflicted with Thanksgiving.

The commission will be discussing the Municipal Swimming Pool fees and the proposed recreation facility. The public is invited to attend.

SM Bows To Strong Pico Rivera

Sierra Madre Swim Team will challenge Pico Rivera at Pico Rivera Nov. 12 in a water polo match to revenge its bloody defeat of last Saturday when the powerful Pico Rivera smeared Sierra Madre 142 to 255.

Coach Roger Keith and Assistant Coach Joe Baines were happy for the 8 blue ribbons won by the following: Owen Lubow, Amanda Smith (2), Alex McDonald, Simon Smith, Nancy Rudolps, John Cowen and Ronnie Krause. Four relay teams also brought home 7 points each for the home team. They were composed of the following: 2-event winners — Roark Paschall, Eric Skarin, Paul Hendrix and John Cowen; Kathy Kurzweil, Amanda Smith, Elizabeth Bullard, Kim Franklin, Laura Hernandez, Lorraine Kunihiro, Pat Iffert and Betsy Barnes.

The following swim records were broken by the home team members which helped to sweeten the bitter seeds of defeat: Amanda Smith broke both the 8 and under breast stroke of 33.7 for 33 yards with a 33.3, and the fly record of 38.7 by doing 34.0; Alex McDonald set a new 8 and under boys' breast stroke record of 33.0;

COUNCILMAN SORENSEN FILLS IN LAPSE OF TIME

by COUNCILMAN SORENSEN

TO THE CITIZENS OF SIERRA MADRE:

One of the local newspapers in their Thursday, Nov. 3rd EDITION, published certain statements credited to me during the Council Meeting of Oct. 25. Sandwiched in between two quotations appears in BOLD LARGE TYPE — "BUT 1 HALF HOUR LATER"

Surely a thinking must be curious as to what caused Councilman Sorensen to change his position.

Again let us refer to the front page of the same local newspaper, edition of October 27; Quote: "Discussion began with Ed Wagner making the point that the prime matter is protection which could be afforded by enlargement of the debris basin before reconstruction of the channel itself." (Bold face are mine). After the quoted remark "The key is to take care of the debris first before the wash enlargement," by Councilman Sorensen. Now let's follow closely as Mr. Omar Hall, representing the Army Corps of Engineers and the LACFCD as he is quoted:

Mr. Hall: "The Flood Control was 'tired of the innuendos that they did not know their job, that the council must be cooperative.' "He reaffirmed the fact that the DOWN STREAM WORK WILL BE DONE FIRST AS PROPOSED . . . THEN POSSIBLE upstream work will be considered. Quote: "We propose to take care of the outflow before we take care of the inflow which is an orderly engineering procedure," declared Mr. Hall. "The Flood Control always works from the ocean to the mountains."

During the discussion which followed, Councilman Sorensen asker Mr. Hall if this procedure could be expressed in words such as the following: "We do not build six lane highways from the suburbs to feed into four lane highways in to the heart of the city." To this Mr. Hall replied, "VERY APTLY STATED."

The referenced edition of the local paper recalls the reading in an earlier Council meeting of two letters dated April 20, and April 21, 1966 both from the LACFD which

In Honor of Those Gone Ahead

Historical Society Holds Very Impressive Meeting

by BILL WARK

The golden years of Sierra Madre came flowing back last Saturday afternoon as the Historical Society, a group of our finest citizens held their annual fall meeting. It was a well attended and very informative meeting. And how many tender memories did the old familiar faces evoke in the minds of the members as Mrs. Convers Twycross presented her colored movies of the pioneers and early day events in Sierra Madre. In the moments of silence as President Raymond D. Andrews read the list of the members who have left our earthly scenes during the passing year, I couldn't help but think that we honor ourselves when we meet and pay tribute to the men and women of this society who have done so much to make Sierra Madre the lovely town that it is. And it may be well to mention that the Sierra Madre Historical Society was the very first organization to back the mountain men in their effort to preserve the natural beauty of the Little Santa Anita Canyon. And with them came the encouragement to keep up the battle.

During the meeting two groups of panelist voices were recorded on tape by Mrs. William Keith, whose gentle smile helped a great deal as they recalled the bright days of their youth spent in Sierra Madre. The first group, those who settled here before 1910, consisted of Raymond D. Andrews, Mrs. Janet Wood, Miss Mabel Olsen, C. W. Jones, Miss Florence Bixby, Mrs. Helen Hill and Mrs. Gladys Carter. In the second group, those who settled here from 1910 to 1922, were Jack Butler, Miss Lulu Moore and Bill Wark.

We should ever remember that many of the members of the Historical Society and some of their fathers before them were the ones who erected our churches, built the lodges, cleared the land and laid the foundations of this beautiful town.

"There are men far along in years—walking down the western slope where shadows lengthen towards evening—who are eager and alert of spirit, happy and forward-looking, their faith undimmed, their zest of life unabated. These are not old men. There is in them a foregleam of immortal life. Years have piled up betimes, but they have kept their faith firm, their feelings buoyant, their sympathies active and their interest in life fresh and vivid. How fine it is to see a man grow old reverently and beautifully, his heart aglow with the soft light of eventide

Voices From Home Makes Possible Recorded Message

The Pasadena Chapter, American National Red Cross, a partner in the United Crusade, has expanded a year-round project, "Voices from Home," according to Mrs. Don Hull McCreery, chairman, Service to Military Families. Mrs. George Penny has been appointed chairman of this project.

"Voices from Home" has been expanded this year to include a picture of the family being taken while talking into the tape recorder. "This project is provided for families who have servicemen or women overseas, on ships at sea, or in hospitals in the United States," Mrs. Penny said, "and will enable the families at home to record messages to their loved ones on tapes."

These tapes and pictures will be made and mailed by the Red Cross at no expense to the serviceman or his family, and the Red Cross Field Directors at military bases and hospitals have the equipment to play these tapes.

This service is available to families who reside in Pasadena, South Pasadena, San Marino, Altadena, La Canada, Sierra Madre, Temple City, Monrovia, Duarte and Bradbury.

To make an appointment for a tape recording and picture, write to the Pasadena Chapter, 430 Madeline Drive, Pasadena or call 799-0841.

In making the announcement Mrs. Penny pointed out that Red Cross services are available wherever U.S. troops are stationed. To meet the challenge of the Film To Be Shown Tues.

"Anarchy USA," a film explaining the causes behind the widespread riots taking place in this country, will be shown at 8 p.m. Tuesday, November 15, at the American Opinion Library, 54 W. Sierra Madre Blvd. No admission charge.

When civil rights strife erupted in Southern states two years ago, many Northerners assumed that it was "because the Negroes are treated so badly by the Southerners."

Then came the riots in Harlem, Watts, Chicago, Cleveland, Detroit, etc. The cause of riots had to be reconsidered.

"Anarchy USA" provides the answers to many of the questions brought forth by the civil rights situation which, if not understood, could widen the gap of butual respect between Whites and Negroes.

Blood Bank To Be Here Next Mon.

Mrs. Richard Barden, chairman of the Red Cross Blood Program in Sierra Madre reminds readers that the Red Cross Blood Bank will be at the Sierra Madre School, Auburn at Highland, next Monday afternoon, November 14, from 2:30 until 7 o'clock.

It is important that appointments be made in advance for the Blood Bank so that it can be organized to conserve the blood donor's tim. If you have not already made your appointment, please call the local Red Cross office, 355-0745, as soon as you can and arrange your time of appointment.

Mrs. Barden also said that if anyone wishes to donate blood but has not been able to arrange an appointment, they should go to the Blood Bank anyhow during the latter part of the afternoon and the committee will try to manage somehow to fit them into the schedule of donors.

A thought to remember — your pint of blood could mean the difference between life and death for a loved one or for a friend.

Midgets Enter Finals Saturday

It will be North against the South all over again this Saturday, when the Pasadena Pop Warner Midgets will enter the San Gabriel Championship Finals and face the battle-lines of the Rosemead Rebels.

Last Saturday the Midgets whipped the West Covina Broncos in a close 19-14, and the Lobos from West Covina met defeat by the Rebels. High hopes are centered on the 6 Sierra Madre boys who have been steadily contributing to the 8-0 record boasted by Pasadena.

The four local boys playing with the Bulldogs are all "first stringers," and this team still hopes for a Bowl bid as they now stand 5-1 in league play.

A small defeat, second only of the season, tripped the Pee-Wee team on a last minute pass play when they challenged Fullerton city champs, the Indians.

Deadline Extended

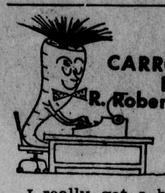
The deadline for Sierra Madre's paint-a-can contest has been etxended to November 10. Don't wait till the last minute fill your application out and present your drawing today.

Depict on a piece of 18"x 24" paper a design picture or mass of color that would move you on a trash can.

The can are those you see on Sierra Madre Blvd. Any Sierra Madrean of any age may participate. You don't need to be a Leonardo DeVinci, Monet or a Rembrant to win.

Just go to the Sierra Madre City Hall, 55 W. Sierra Madre Blvd. or call 355-7135 and ask for Parks and Recreation to receive more information and applications.

Don't wait, put your idea in color and submit it now.



I really got a big charge out of the story about Billy Wark and his wrestling experience. I can remember the day, some years ago, when I watched him in one of his many matches. Of Of course, I never knew that some day he would be my personal friend, in fact

I have known Bill for almost five years, and it was just the other day that he saw fit to unravel some of his wrestling experiences to the point where I fully recognized that years ago he was an idol of mine.

— CT —

I suppose that during life many things such as this happens to many of us. You have a particular friend in younger life who you forget about, then all of a sudden you have a chance to talk over a situation with a person and the remarks go something like this . . . . You're not the John Brown that I knew back in College, and away the situation goes. This happened recently with Jack Meade at the Sierra Madre Hardware, when a salesman entered, and after a while it was found that they worked together, side by side in Illinois, and were old friends long forgotten . . . . it's a great part of life.

— CT —

All around us we hear plans for the coming holiday season. The Chamber of Commerce is going all out to make this one special. They will have the sleigh and Santa Claus for the children to ride about town. A new Creche will be up, decorations will be up, better than ever and the merchants have merchandise rolling in that will really give their customers top quality in the shopping area this year. Already I am getting the Christmas spirit.

— CT —

I didn't even let the receiving my tax bill the other day dampen my feelings for the coming holiday season. This year I am going to borrow the money from my friendly banker and let him worry about its payment, after all I did not ask to be taxed, so why should I worry about paying it. Just pay the bill and let other worry about it.

— CT —

Just remember when you look over your tax bill this year that it was not your City Government that made the increase. Increased valuations could account for most of it, but a little here and a little there did the dirty work . . . and it could have been, and next year will be much worse, mark what I tell you.

— CT —

Getting back to Christmas, and we just as well stay with this subject for the next couple of months. I believe one of the greatest enjoyments that I have had here in Sierra Madre, aside from the erection of the Creche, is the Santa and reindeers that are on the roof of Roberts Market. Of course I have always said that Leila Roberts puts up this display especially for me and of course the other merchants in Kersting Court. It really adds a lot to the Christmas enjoyment of the people of the area.

— CT —

Of course this year the Creche is going to take on a new appearance. I have always enjoyed Gordon Baker Lloyd laboring over the placing of the cotton and the figurines, the setting up and the dismantling . . . but no more . . . with the new permanent housing it should make his work a little easier, and I am anxiously awaiting this year's rendition . . . It will be good, because it has the insipration of years ago and

What Is A Coffee House? Explained By News Staff

by Mary-Madeleine Lanphier

Your mother's great grandfather may very well have run a coffee house. At least, he probably spent a good deal of time in one. Coffee houses have attracted people ever since the 15th century, when the first recorded ones were opened in Mecca about 1450. They spread to other Middle East centers and in 1554 to Constantinople. Coffee itself was introduced to Europe about 1600 when Venetian traders brought it to Italy from Constantinople and the first European coffee house appeared in Venice in 1645. Within 50 years coffee houses had spread to England, France, Germany, Austria and overseas to the American colonies, and by 1700 there were more than 2,000 of them in London alone.

The earilest coffee house over here was the King's Arms in little old New York. First to open a coffee house in Boston was a lady. Boston was soon full of coffee houses, and Thomas Paine and Patrick Henry and all our founding fathers did some of their best thinking-out-loud in them. In fact, it is most likely that the Boston Tea Party was planned in an early American coffee house!

From time to time the coffee house has gone out of style, but today it is having a big burst of popularity. The "in" trend seems to have begun again with the expresso cafes in the Italian section of Greenwich Village, where the men would gather to talk politics and play games. Since this Italian section is on one side of Washington Square, and the big New York University on two other sides of it, there began to spring up student coffee houses, and more elegant ones planned for tourists and the after-the-movies crowd. And certainly it is pleasant to drop into a coffee house after a show to discuss it, rather than just a restaurant or a bar. Eventually the elegant type coffee house spread to the expensive uptown areas of Manhattan, and the tiny expresso places to the poorer streets nearer the rivers, or up by Columbia University.

Meanwhile, in the Village, one place opened which always had good records playing and in its huge back room, students, visitors and "characters" mingled to talk earnestly at the tables.

Eventually the increased interest in folk music and in poetry readings caused many places to emerge which were showcases for performances, and in San Francisco so effective and popular were the duplicates of these that a whole national revival of interest in poetry sprung up, as well as the new art form of poetry read to jazz music.

Publicity has sometimes created the false impression that the coffee house is populated largely by beatniks, but actually many of them set standards of elegance and are patronized by persons of taste and affluence, who enjoy the art exhibits featured on the walls.

Now social organizations and churches are sponsoring

Mrs. D. Phillips Named Official Hostess of State

Another of our citizens, Mrs. Draper Phillips, of 528 San Gabriel Ave., has become a celebrity, in a quiet way. Mrs. Phillips has been designated by Governor Brown as an Official Hostess of the State of California, she was recently informed by Daloph Schuman, Chief Protocal Officer of the State's Protocol Office. Her nation of particular assignment is Korea.

Aim of the State's entertainment program is to extend appropriate recognition and hospitality to distinguished overseas visitors. Mrs. Phillips, in addition to having an offical Identification Card, has also received an automobile bumper tag with the legend, "Official Host." Procedure is that the Los Angeles branch of the World Affairs Council calls Mrs. Phillips and asks if she can entertain visitors at a given time; the Council in turn has been notified by the U.S. State Department, which often sponsors visitors' trips here.

This good neighbor role is a natural one to bestow on Mrs. Phillips, for she and her husband, Commander Phillips, USNR, have already unofficially been performing it as the result of time spent in the Far East when her husband was with the military government there after World War II. They have often entertained Korean and Japanese visitors when they come over here, and together they visited Japan a couple of years ago.

The Phillips have lived in Sierra Madre since coming

Miss Karen Anne Carjola Weds Ensign John Cleve Calmer

Miss Karen Anne Carjola, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester L. Carjola of Montecito, Santa Barbara and Ensign John Cleve Calmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Calmer of Pasadena were married Saturday, October 29, at El Montecito Presbyterian Church, Montecito, Santa Barbara, California, by the Rev. Paul F. Gammons.

Miss Gmynne Ellen Baillard of Carpinteria, California and childhood friend of the bride was maid of honor. Braidesmaids were Miss Linda Jo Brown of Berkeley and Miss Stephanie Kaiser of San Francisco, both sorority sisters of the bride. Peter Calmer, brother of the bridegroom was best man and ushers were Jack Gregory of Pasadena and William Smartt of San Rafael, fraternity brother of the bridegroom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown fashioned from peau de soio and silk organza with a fitted bodice which featured a V-neck of re-embroidered alencon lace and seed pearls. The long fitted silk organza sleeves featured matching lace appliques and the tapered skirt swirled into a chapel length train. Her silk illusion shoulder-length veil was held by a cluster of lace rosettes and peau de soio leaves to match her dress and she carried a bouquet of Jack Frost roses, stephanotis, and miniature white orchids with lace leaves starred with seed pearls.

All of the bride's attendants wore floor-length gowns of avocado green pean de soie similarly-styled to that of the bride featuring an Italian neckline. Their headpieces of autumn-toned chrysanthemums were held with leafy clusters of the avocado green fabric. They carried cascade bouquets of autmntoned Rayette chrysanthemums.

The mother of the bride wore a peach brocade suit with matching accessories and a corsage of buttercup roses and bittersweet. The mother of the bridegroom was dressed in a beige silk linent suit with matching accessories and wore a corsage of bacarra roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride.

For her going away outfit, the bride chose a Kelly green three piece knit suit with camel accessories and wore a corsage of lemon yellow gladiola florettes.

The bride is a graduate of Santa Barbara High School. She received her Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from the University of California at Berkeley, where she was affiliated with the Chi Omega sorority.

The bridegroom graduated from Pasadena High School and the University of California at Berkeley, where he received his Bachelors degree in Civil Engineering, and was affiliated with the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity. He just recently graduated from Naval Officer Candidate School in Newport, Rhode Island.

Following their wedding trip the couple will make their home at Port Huenome, where Ensign Calmer will receive advanced training for the Naval Civil Engineering Corps.

Friends of Library Schedule Films For Series

The struggle of the residents of an English hamlet and the ingenious tactics they use to preserve their ancint single-track railway against the encroachment of a modern bus line will be the subject of the museum film, "The Titfield Thunderbolt," to be presented by the Friends of the Sierra Madre Library on Monday, November 14, at 7:30 p.m,. in Sierra Mesa cafetorium.

Verdugo Alumnae To Meet Nov. 15

At the fall meeting of the Alumnae of Verdugo District Board to be held Tuesday, November 15 with a noon luncheon at a restaurant in Pasadena. Mrs. J. B. Atkisson, president, will present a Community Improvement Citation to Mrs. Thomas B. Roscoe of Eagle Rock.

This award was received by the Alumnae Club for their participation in the General Federation of Women's Clubs community improvement program during 1964 to 1966.

Miss Olive Francesca Alverez of Glendale will present the afternoon program featuring Mrs. Joseph L. Morgan of Inglewood in a round the world tour of International Clubs. Mrs. Morgan, a former General Federation chairman, working through the U.S. State Department has entertained over 800 visitors from 60 countries. She was the only representative from the United States to attend the organization of the Asian Federation of Women's Clubs.

The newly appointed membership chairman, Mrs. Edward Frank of Covina and president's aide, Mrs. Edward Smith of Los Angeles will assume their duties as members of the executive board.

Mrs. C. H. Forbes of Altadena, Verdugo District Gerontology chairman reports that patients at the Grove Convalescent Hospital have received lap robes, magazines, bibs, slippers and bed caddy. Plans are progressing for the establishment of a Sunday Vesper Service for the patients.

New Members of Auxiliary Guild To Be Welcomed

Ten new provisionals will be welcomed to their first meeting of the Sierra Madre Auxiliary of the Crippled Children's Guild by Mrs. Edward Sevadjian, president.

The November luncheon meeting will be held at Eaton's Restaurant in Arcadia on Thursday, Nov. 10, at 10:45 a.m.

The first game of the bridge tournament will be played this month according to Mrs. Robert Pendl, chairman. Mrs. Leo Lehner and Mrs. Roy Lindberg have assisted Mrs. Pendl in organizing two daytime and five evening flights.

May 20 has been selected for the Bal Mystique 1967. Proceeds from this formal ball and the bridge tournament are the auxiliary's contribution to the Orthopaedic Hospital's new Diagnostic and Treatment Center Ways and means chairman, Mrs. William Gibson, will announce the following chairmen for Bal Mystique: Mrs. Edward Riggins, decorations; Mrs. Norman Kennedy, reservations; Mrs. Nick Argy, programs; Mrs. Roger Hopkins, prizes; Mrs. Charles Corp, patrons; Mrs. James Nickoloff, publicity.

Members and friends are invited to donate used but salable children's clothes this month for the Orthopaedic Thrift Shop. This shop is frequented in a large part by mothers of crippled children during their many visits for treatment and brace fittings.

"Let's Talk Dry Cleaning"

Winter time is party time, especially during the holidays. As any woman knows, parties are more fun if you're dressed for them . . . . and women's party clothes and formals are on the really elegant side this year. Devastatingly bouffant dresses in a splendor of color lead the fashion parade, many encrusted with sprakling jewels and ornaments.

To dry clean such clothing successfully, not only must the fabric from which the garment is made be considered, but also each material (including trimming) which goes to make up the entire article.

As a rule, ornaments, jewels and metal and stone-studed buttons must be removed before dry cleaning. Sequins and other bead trimmings are usually too numerous to be taken off and require very special cleaning care. Trimmings that are a different color than that of the main garment have to be tested to make sure that the colors won't "bleed."

You can trust the cleaning of your precious formals to us with complete confidence that we will give them attentive care and return them to you impeccably clean and new-looking. Remember, with fine clothes especially the sweetness of low price never make up for the bitterness of low quality!

Mothers Of Twins To Hold Boutique Sat., November 19

With proceeds to going to the Cerebral Palsy Training Center in Whittier, the Santa Anita Chapter Mothers of Twins Club will hold their Holiday Boutique Saturday, November 19 from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m. The event will take place at Pacific Savings and Loan, 41 E. Liveoak in Arcadia.

A large selection of gay and festive holiday gifts, items for home decoration, toys and baked goods will be offered. Mrs. Ronald Lopez of San Gabriel is chairman for the Boutique, and is being assisted by Mrs. Frank Pirri, Sierra Madre; Mrs. Barry Waldrep, San Gabriel, Mrs. Clark Spoelstra, Temple City; Mrs. John Harte, Alhambra, Mrs. Gino Roncelli, Arcadia; Mrs. Ronald Young, Pasadena; Mrs. Harry Conner, Rosemead; Mrs. Warren Forrest, Temple City; Mrs. John Hoffman, Sierra Madre; Mrs. Donald Fowler, Arcadia, and Mrs. Ryan Berger, Monterey Park.

The sale is open to the public and coffee will be served continuously.

You and Your Neighbors

by Mary-Madeleine Lanphier

With National Retarded Children's Week coming up November 13, you might want to note office phone of the San Gabriel Valley Association, which is 334-7658. Many people are not aware that there are special classes in public schools for some levels of retardation, and in this area, four training classes for those not acceptable in the public schools. It's fantastic what patience and love can accomplish today in meeting the problems of retardation, which I got to see first hand couple of years ago when I worked on a film dealing with the various ages and classes. Now whenever I get extra upset with adolescents or just life, I remember and am shamed. Keep in mind that Cal State now has a huge grant to aid those interested in training for various kinds of counselling work.

Perhaps we ought to take second thought in this wincing at early preparations for Christmas, and not only stip resisting it, but recall that in olden times this was true, too, in a happy sense, with plum puddings and fruit cakes made well ahead of time so they could be stored in the cellar to age, and small fry spending long and determined hours, along with elders of more nimble fingers, in producing hand-made labors of love as gifts. It could be that we are returning to the traditional concept, particularly since we are year by year encouraged to create our own decorations. Not to be missed in this concoction are the clever and budget-easy ideas to be found in those sessions which Gordon Baker Lloyd will again give at Hinshaw's in three afternoon session Nov. 15 and 16. Of particular note are his tips on treatments of greens, dried berries, pods and branches, and how to hang and preserve them, both for this Yule time and for other years, too. His suggestions will cover ways to perk up tables, the house itself, packages, stockings. Surely half the joy of Christmas is to be making things with children with the warm feeling of family and home around one of a cool winter evening, and the lessons learned from the challenges of "make-do and make-pretty" can affect a whole life's philosophy, reason enough for painstaking effort in an age threatened by over-materialistic values. (And stop by with the children to watch the new creche in the making at Kersting Court, lend a hand where possible — it's a community project.)

The announcement that Mrs. Draper Phillips has been designated as an official hostess of the State's Protocol Office is timed just right for the Annual World Fellowship observance to be held at the Pasadena YWCA, 79 N. Marengo Ave. at 3 p.m. this coming Sunday, November 13. Spokesmen for the consulates of Korea, Japan, the Philippines and Nationalist China will speak; might be a perk-up for your social science student to attend, as well as informative for you.

Best summary heard yet on weight control and the role of emotions in it comes from the bio of singer Bob Merrill, "When life is sweet, you don't need so much sugar." Which brings up the fact that TOPS continues to meet Monday eves at City Hall, 8 p.m., and maybe this is the year when I'll join up myself, on account of shop windows on our side of the street having some kind of tricky way of reflecting back the silhouette when one passes by.

Here's the course you've sought for the daughter restless to earn, but seemingly too young to baby-sit: a free baby-sitting course called Good Emergency Mother Substitutes, or GEMS. It's sponsored by Foothill Branch, of Women's Auxiliary L.A. County Medical Association, a new course will open in Monrovia soon, and girls in 7th, 8th and 9th grades may register by calling 445-3546.

Best cure for whiney matrons: volunteer work. Also recommended for boredom, grief, mothers with sons in service or whose daughters have recently married, or when the last child goes off to college leaving sudden silences. Call the Volunteer Bureau, 792-5141 and make your choice.

The fish are well represented in the nine-at-home busy household of John and Ellen Bullard at 10 N. Mt. Trail, but so far there's only one marked for the bird's way. Peggy and Elizabeth and Bill are all on the Sierra Madre swim team; Pat, second year student at PCC, majoring in history, is Senate representative on the PCC Flying Club. It will be a while before he tries for a pilot's license, but meantime, as a club member, he's getting in some preliminary ground work, like the plane wash the group had recently. Seems washing a plane is a mite more tedious than washing a car: there's all that gooky oil on the undercarriage. But it probably gives Pat status with the many younger members of the family; besides the swimmers there are Chrissie, Cathy, Mary and Mike, who is playing football for PHS, and little Jane and Jimmy not yet in school. Daughter Barbara, married to Bill Fisher and living in Indianpolis, has produced the family's first grandchild, 3-month old Doug. Barbara last saw her mother last November, her father in August. Ten children. And you're complaining?

If you're never tasted persimmon cookies, make friends with Billie Stine and hope for the best. She brought home a batch of the fruit and baked a batch of these yummies when she returned from a recent pleasant outing to Bishop with her sister Mrs. Helen Keogh, of San Diego, and her mother, Mrs. Marjorie Andrews of Leisure World. Viewing the autumnal changes thereabouts with a painter's eye (Billie continues with her art classes) she claims that the breath-taking beauty of the trees is quite distinctive from that of the East and Middle West, more yellows and rust. Wonder how many in town feel most nostalgia for Eastern hills at the time they flame scarlet and gold a brief while?

SM Civic Club To Hold Meeting

The Sierra Madre Civic Club will hold a regular bi-monthly meeting on Nov. 10 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Gordon Caldwell, 161 E. Grand View, with Mrs. John Hahn as co-hostess.

The program will feature Mr. Tolaneius, assistant supervisor of Pasadena Employment who will speak on Youth Employment. Mrs. Slight of the Sierra Madre Youth Employment Office will also be introduced.

Mrs. William Holcomb, Toy Soldier chairman, has announced that the month of November is "Toy Month" for Toy Loan. Mrs. John Starkey, club president, joins with the entire membership in urging the support of Sierra Madre in collecting discarded toys to be sent for repair and then to be distributed to various Toy Loan branches.

The Man in your life expects something.

You know how husbands are on Christmas. So give him with all your love . . . .

A beautiful custom tailored suit from Don Jackson's. We have on hand over six hundred cuts of the finest new fall fabrics from England and Italy.

His size? No problem. We have your husband's pattern in our file and if we put the cloth of your choice in work by December 1st, it will be hand cut and tailored in our own shop to your husband's measure and guaranteed for Christmas delivery. Scared? We will beautifully Christmas wrap your cloth for tailoring after the Holidays.

How much does it cost? You'll be pleased to hear it — only $145.00 and you have the finest imported mohairs, superfine worsteds, silks, sharkskins and hand loomed tweeds to select from . . . . .

Obey that good impulse. Come in and select a cloth today.

It's the loving thing to do.

Yours — for a real Christmas for him,

Don Jackson

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

The following is a copy of a letter sent to the District Army Engineers from the Los Angeles County Flood Control.

District Engineer
U.S. Army Engineer District,
Los Angeles
P.O. Box 2711
Los Angeles, Calif. 90053
Dear Sir:

The City Council of Sierra Madre, on October 25, 1966, passed a motion approving the concept of channel improvement of Sierra Madre Wash as proposed by your office with the reservation that further consideration be given to enlarging the debris capacity above Sierra Madre Dam.

Intense concern over the problem of debris as witnessed at meetings attended by representatives of your office and this District has been continually expressed by the members of the City Council of Sierra Madre and residents in the area. This concern is also shared by the City of Arcadia and this office. It is therefore requested that excavation behind the dam be included in the project plan as previously proposed.

In the event that Federal funds canot be used for this addition to the project, this office will request inclusion of the debris storage excavation on a contributed funds basis. Your cooperation in this matter is greatly appreciated.

Walter J. Wood,
Chief Engineer

Rescue Team On the Job

At 3:40 duty man Chuck Kassler called Larry Twedell to roll the Rescue Truck. Twedell picked up four men at the park baseball game and proceeded to base camp (Fern Lodge). The Team reached the victime one half mile above Sturdevant Falls and completed the litter evacution by 4:45 p.m.

A member of the party that was with the victim stated that the victim was taking pictures when she lost her balance and fell about thirty feet down a steep slope to the canyon floor. The injuries sustained were a fractured wrist and compound fracture of the left hand. She also suffered a cerebral concussion. The victim was released from the Arcadia Methodist Hospital that same evening.

The victom was Joan Schirtzinger, age 20, of 1306 S. Oaknoll, Pasadena.

With the victim: Peggy Palmer, age 15, and Jeff Palmer, age 22.

Team members present: Larry Twedell, Ed La Lone, Earl La Lone, Ray Lorenzini, Warren Hill, Ralph Shangraw, Rae Anderson, Larry Samules and John Holcomb.

Compiled by: Larry Twedell.

Services Held For Leroy Toms

Graveside services for LeRoy M. Toms, 82, who died November 3, were held Saturday, November 5, in Inglewood Park Cemetery. Inglewood Cemetery Mortuary were the directors.

Toms was a member of the Rising Light Lodge, F & AM, Huntington Park. A native of Pennsylvania, he lived at 265 Mariposa Ave., and had been a resident of this area 62 years.

Surviving are his son, LeRoy C. Toms of Sierra Madre; five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

termined with unofficial returns and some precincts still missing that Richardson took the 19th District by a 2 to 1 majority.

Elliott	607
Gappert	607
Lopez	524
McKay	418
Michael	326
Risser	1161
Rudolph	346

Here again with unofficial returns in from all precincts J. Ray Risser seemed to have the necessary majority to be elected.

Lipscomb	4000
McNall	1067
District wide, unofficial.

Lipseomb was sent back to Congress by a majority of almost 4 to 1.

Although the fate of the Associate Justices of the Supreme Court over the state as a whole may not be known for several days, Sierra Madreans put the four of them down about 2 to 3, and gave McComb a 5 to 1 approval.

The last precinct to report in was precinct No. 21 which finished up with their tally and reported to the City Hall about 5:45.

All over the district the write in vote for Hillings was a miserable failure, and in Sierra Madre, Precinct 10 refused to give up a single vote, and the largest write in in Sierra Madre was Precinct 21 which gave Hillings 38.

lated area downstream if the 'project storm' occurs.

They further believe that alternate proposals would give the citizenry of both Sierra Madre and Arcadia maximum protection from the projected storm and do so without destroying the natural canyon stream and the property of the home owners.

"Complete information has never been submitted on either the project as now proposed by the Flood Control or the alternate proposals.

"For the above reasons, the undersigned objectors ask that you repeal your motion and notify the Flood Control that they may not proceed prior to the required submission of complete information concerning all phases of the project plan, as directed by Congressional action."

The City Council then tabled the peitition and referred the matter to City Engineer Lockman and City Attorney Martin to explore the legal meaning of the rider placed on the bill by Congressman Lipscomb, with the matter held over for discussion at the meeting of November 22.

Kersting Court

The traffic barrier at the intersection of Kersting Court and Sierra Madre Blvd., by motion of Vice Mayor King was abolished for a period of nine months for trial as to its effectiveness. The motion was seconded by Councilman Sorensen and carried by 5-0.

Petitions

It seemed that this was the night for petitions of objections with four being presented during the course of the evening. First being the petition of the Sierra Madre Wash carrying 901 signers. Second petition of the people in the vicinity of the newly proposed county fire station carrying 38 signatures opposing to same. Third a petition with 16 signers objecting to the Carter-Richter-Oak Crest Tract and fourth a petition of Arcadians consisting of 15 signatures asking that the Santa Anita Landscaping project be processed as soon as possible.

Other Business

Other business constituted the appointment of a five man committee for the water rate study consisting of Yunck, Lyle, Vannier, Mosley, Feeney, with Grigsby an ex-officio member. Also the appointment of a five man committee to study City fees and licenses which consisted of Simpson, Griffin, Maloney, Delahook and Boggio.

The entire agenda was completed and the council adjourned at 1:28 a.m.

You and Your Neighbor

by Mary-Madeleine Lamphier

Very quietly has Mary Jones, last year's Civic Club president, joined the ranks of mothers back on campus. She has been taking a class in sociology, in a relaxed and leisurely way will continue toward an eventual degree and the prospect of teaching. That is, if you can call it leisurely to include chauffeuring children back and forth to school! She and her husband Dick will again head for the hills and skiing come Christmas, going to Heavenly Valley at Tahoe, but this year taking along Jefferey 6 and Jennifer 8, who will be given lessons with the hope they'll join parents in ski arder. Thanksgiving will be the big family holiday for them, with about 14 guests planned for, will include Mary's mother, her brother "Buckie" Bucken from Brentwood, the children...s great-great aunt Mrs. M. E. Williamson.

The Toy Soldiers, founded less than a year ago, now has a waiting list for membership, with new girls to sign up in January. Meantime, the soldiers are wondering about the surprises in store for them for their first annual party slated for December and pitching in to help with the collection of old toys this month. Don't forget to round these up — take to Toy Loan in Memorial Park after school on Tuesday or Thursdays, or phone to have them picked up.

Borrow Records At Library

The San Gabriel Valley Library System has added a new service for the residents of Altadena, Monrovia, Pasadena, Sierra Madre and South Pasadena — that of lending phonograph records to all residents of these communities.

Services to System borrowers have expanded rapidly since the System's inception on June 1, 1966, when only books and pamphlets were available. In September, film services were added. Now, patron satisfaction with the ability to use the resources of all five libaries has been so great that the System Council has added this new privilege.

Phonograph record collections are located at the Monrovia, Pasadena, Sierra Madre and South Pasadena Public Libraries, and range from classical music through and including musical comedies, jazz, and the spoken word. The Altadena Public Library expects its phonograph record service to be in full swing by the time its new building is completed in mid-year, 1967. Interested persons are asked to return the recordings to the libraries from which they borrow them in order to minimize damage in transit.

At the same time, Mrs. Winifred Ragsdale, administrative consultant for the System, announces that the Monrovia and Pasadena Public Libraries have recently made an additional group of films available to System borrowers, including White Mane, Golden Fish and films of the Rose Bowl Parade. These, too, must be borrowed and returned to Monrovia and Pasadena, but residents of all five communities are welcome to use them.

Solutions To Delinquency

by Mary-Madeleine Lamphier

California, with 9 per cent of the nation's population, has 17 per cent of the nation's crime. A shocking 40 per cent of all major crimes committed in California are commited by persons 18 years old or younger. It costs $4000 a year to house a hard core delinquent in a state institution. Should only pennies be spent to prevent delinquency?

The Board of Supervisors has approved a plan to establish a County Commission on Youth, comprised primarily of teen-agers to advise on young people's problems. Each supervisor will appoint three persons between the ages of 14 and 19 and one adult to the panel. The group will consider such problems as school dropouts, job placement, recreation and the prevention of alcoholism and narcotics addiction.

At the church-sponsored coffee house The Intersection in San Francisco, the directors wondered why they had not been raided for narcotics, like all the other coffee houses on the block. A "beat" explained that he and the other customers had told the dope pushers to stay out of The Intersection because they know that the people who owned it were "religious" and assumed that they would not tolerate such overt evil doers.

But churchmen, in learning about ministering to the world from the coffee house often find the road of discussion and relationship rocky.

J. Watt Tells Of Engagement To Sgt. Berquist

The Matrons' and Patrons' Dinner of the Sierra Madre Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star was chosen as the setting by Worthy Matron June Watt at which to announce her engagement to Sgt. Everett A. Bergquist, USAF,, with the wedding ceremony tentatively set for December 10.

The dinner, which is generally observed each year, was sponsored by Worthy Matron June Watt and Worthy Patron John Gustafson, and was held Sunday evening at the Headliner in Sierra Madre. Just before dinner was served, the guests were requested to open little ribbon-tied scrolls at each setting, and the announcement was revealed.

Among those present were Worthy Matron June Watt and Sgt. Bergquist, Worthy Patron John Gustafson and wife, Virginia, the Master of Sierra Madre Masonic Lodge Earl Knowles and wife, Tessa, Mrs. Ida Setterlund, Deputy Grand Fatron during June and John's year, and husband, Walfrid, George and Ella Russell, James and Edna Hall, Laurie and Richard Cooper, Patricia and Don Colbert, Burnett Meeder, Annabell and Arthur Fox, Marie and Robert Vanderpool, Bernice and Martin Olson, Mrs. Berniece Gibian, Marcus and Hazel Woodward, Alice and Nelson Morrison, Mrs. Alene Welch,, Mrs. Florence Dollarhide, Mrs. Tillie Froehlich, Mrs. Donna Robertson, Mrs. Dola Ann Black, William and Florence Bowers, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kaskell and Mrs. Orcelia Henderson.

Brunch & Shower Held In Honor Of Miss C. McNamara

A Sunday brunch and linen shower was held November 6 by Mrs. Frederick A. Potruch in honor of Miss Catherine M. McNamara, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis McNamara of 331 San Gabriel Court. Miss McNamara, a graduate of Alverno Heights Academy, will be married to Alan Richard Steel of Arcadia on November 24 at St. Rita's Church here.

Guests from Sierra Madre included the mother and sister of the bride-to-be, Mrs. Francis McNamara and Miss Cecilia McNamara, as well as Mrs. Jeanne Willhite, Mrs. George Matakovich, and Mrs. Lee Lehner.

From Arcadia came Mr. Steel's mother, Mrs. Richard F. Steel, his sister, Miss Lauiro Steel, and a grandmother, Mrs. Anna Szabo, as well as Mrs. Joe Graham, Miss Janet Burpee, Mrs. Roberta Fiore. Another grandmother of the prospective bridegroom, Mrs. Mary Steel came from Pasadena, as did Mrs. Maurice Anderson; from San Marino there were Mrs. Ross Blakely and Miss Heather Blakely and from Long Beach Mrs. Frank Jackson (formerly Sandra Blakely of Sierra Madre). Additional guests were Mrs. Allen Thale and Mrs. Emma Szabo.

Fashions To Be Presented By Mt. Alverno

Fashions "A-Go-Go" will be presented by the Mt. Alverno Thrift Shop, 150-A W. Live Oak, Arcadia, on Wednesday, Nov. 16, at Annunciation School in Arcadia.

Lunch will be served at noon under the direction of Mrs. William O'Choa, and fashions which include several suits by Christian Dior will conclude the afternoon.

Mrs. Bonnie Riebold will entertain on the organ donated by the Arcadia Music Mart.

Coiffures will be by Jean Clementi of Sierra Madre.

For further information, please contact Mrs. Paul Byrnes, 446-3909, chairman.

Services Held For

Mrs. Marian Evelyn Lauber, 79, of 184 Auburn passed away Tuesday, November 1, at Parkwood Convalescent Hospital. She was the widow of former city employee, Julius C. Lauber. Originally from South Dakota, she had been a resident of Sierra Madre for 43 years.

She is survived by sons, Harry R. Lauber of Arcadia and Edward Lee Lauber of Sierra Madre; daughter, Mrs. Ethel M. McLain of Sierra Madre; 3 grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Services were conducted by the Rev. David Howell on Friday, November 4, at Ripple Mortuary Chapel. Interment was at Live Oak Cemetery with arrangements made by Ripple Mortuary.

Library Shows Large Increase In Circulation

Sierra Madre Public Librarian Paul Axe reported to the board of trustees, at its meeting last week, that the figures for the first four months of the current fiscal year indicate doubling of last year's increase by the end of the present fiscal year.

He indicated that for the period of July 1 to October 31, 1966 circulation has increased by 3.381 over the like period of 1965. This is only 1,271 under the increase for the first 6 months of fiscal 1965-66.

Circulation for October of this year was 9,012, and 707 over October, 1963, and 913 over September of this year.

The trustees discussed the current needs of the library and decided to defer any action until the full board is present. And noted that since joining the San Gabriel Valley Library System and installation of the interlocking teletype system the number of books borrowed and loaned between the local library and other libraries had increased as much as 300 per cent.

A report from Friends of the Library told of the group's stand against Proposition 16 and also noted the coming films slated for November 14 and 16 at Sierra Mesa School.

26 New Cub Scouts For Sierra Madre

Cub Scout Pack 381 held induction ceremonies for 26 new Cubs at Sierra Madre School cafeteria on October 21. Cubmaster Edward Puhlman, assisted by Den 4, inducted the following boys:

Den 1, Fred Scott.

Den 3, Billy Asher, Stephan Braden, Jefferey Davis, Jefferey Dunning, Lance Hagele, Bryan Stack, Hermann Runde, Carey Vickers; den mother, Mrs. Jack Davis; assistant den mother, Mrs. Alice Dunning; den dad, Ronald Braden.

Den 6, Michael Baker, Stanley Braybotten, Michael Davis, John Gordon, Peter Lakin, Timothy Morgon, Thomas Morgon, John Woodforoe; den mother, Mrs. Eugene Lakin; assistant den mother, Mrs. Charles Davis; den dad, Eugene Lakin.

Den 7, Daniel Gumm, Bill Harlow, Keith Lower, Brian Mullins, James Roum, David Sidle, Jeffery Slater, Christopher Swadowski, David Wilson; den mother, Mrs. Joe Mullins; assistant den mother, Mrs. Paul Swadowski; den dad, George Harlow.

Opening and closing ceremonies were led by the Webelos who will soon be graduating into scouting.

Other events of the evening were presentation of new flags to the new dens by the VFW Post 3206 of Sierra Madre and presentation of a 25-year emblem to the Pack by William Newberry, charter member of Pack 381, now on the staff at local Scout Headquarters. Each boy in the pack is now entitled to wear a silver 25-year stripe on his uniform.

Snake and Friendship Indian dances, performed by four Boy Scouts of the Order of the Arrow, were a highlight of the meeting.

Cub Scout Victor Falco won a weekend at Wide Horizon Lodge, Big Bear Lake, for his family. This was donated by Mr. and Mrs. David Harris, owners of the lodge.

About 70 Cubs and fathers recently enjoyed an overnight at Hogee's Camp in the nearby San Gabriel Mountains. John Holcombe, of the Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Team, camped with the group and presented a lecture on first aid. Several other members of the Team demonstrated the use of bloodhounds by tracking Cub Scout Steve Udell from Chantry Flat to Hogee's Camp.

'PEPTONE'

BY ALICE MANG

What's new in the pop world? Well, it seems that the Monkees are here. Every Monday on NBC you can enjoy the charming artics of this fab quartet. The group was formed for the purpose of appearing on the "Monkees."

David Jones was brought to life in Manchester, England 20 years ago. When he was old enough he became a jockey for England's Newmarket Racetrack. This was all fine to Davy but music was much more exciting, so he decided to go in for it. He arrived in the U.S. at the Artful Dodger in the English musical "Oliver," then he starred in "Pickwick." He is now the innocent, little Monkee.

Playing Corkey on "Circus Boy," was only the beginning for Micky Dolenz. He also has played in Mr. Novak and Peyton Place. Having become a drummer-singer-comic, he left Los Angeles Technical Trade School to become the lead singer in a pop rock group called the Missing Links. When an ad was published in "Daily Variety" calling for boys to audition for a new TV comedy series for the young set, Micky applied and was made a Monkee.

Mike Nesmith, more commonly known as "Wool Hat" because of his funny green wool hat, was born in Dallas, Texas, on December 30, and taught himself to play guitar. While he was enrolled at San Antonio College, Mike began to make appearances. After college he teamed up with a group but the group had to break up because of the draft.. His next step was Ledbetter's, a folk club, where he developed quite a following, of course, no more than his following in being a Monkee.

Peter Tork is a musical expert, he has learned such instruments as guitar, ukelele, five string banjo, bass, French horn, piano and others. Peter attended Charleton College in Minnesota, with every intention of becoming a teacher. His views were changed though when he decided to become a singer-musician. He traveled to L.A. where he played in various clubs, including the Troubador in West Hollywood.

Scout Troop 528 Plans To Attend Encampment

Lake Casitas in the Ojai Valley north of Ventura is the destination November 11 of Sierra Madre Cadette Troop 528. About 500 from the Pasadena council will attend the three-day encampment.

Senior Scouts will assist the seventh, eighth and ninth grade girls in learning new skills including lashing, first aid, signaling, mapping, back-packing and teaching folk dancing and song leading.

The four troops assigned to each section will entertain international guests for dinner Saturday.

At the section campifre, Karen Vorster will tell about her visit to the Scout chalet in Switzerland this past summer. Members of the troop will assist in teaching folk dancing.

Troop members planning to attend the annual event are Barbara Bevington, Kathy Davis, Stacy Dyer, Terry Felco, Margie Hashitsume, Diane Hauk, Ann Morash, Pam Plischke, Gretchen Popp, Kathy Stephens, Vicki Taylor and Karen Vorster. Accompanying them will be Mrs. Robert Campbell, Mrs. Leonard Popp and Mrs. Tal Morash.

James Vine To Be Guest Speaker At Accountants Meet

James R. Vine, Chief Deputy Assessor of Los Angeles County, will be the guest speaker at the November technical session of the San Gabriel Valley Chapter of the National Association of Accountants to be held at 6:45 p.m. on Thursday evening, November 17, at an inn in El Monte.

Mr. Vine will speak on the subject "Tax Assessment — Will Property Owners Carry a Larger Burden?" Members and guests will learn what is going on in the assessment field and also what is to be expected in the future from a person close to the many changes that have been made in the Los Angeles County Assessor's office.

He is a graduate of UCLA, and prior to his appointment as Chief Deputy Assessor, he was a management consultant.

Any accountant living or working in the area is invited to attend the dinner meeting. Information and reservations can be obtained by calling Pat Toomey at 283-4753, or Gene Thomas at 623-2131.

Crib Crop

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Hall of 169 Santa Anita Court are the proud parents of a new baby boy, David Scott, born October 26 at St. Luke Hospital. He weighed 8 pounds, 1 ounce at birth. Sister, Tina Lee, is three years old.

Both sets of grandparents live in the area. Mr. and Mrs. James Hall are at 89 Mountain Trail and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Fisher live in Pasadena.

Kirsten Marie Hoegee, 13 months, has a brand new baby brother, Gregory Ariel, born October 15 at Huntington Memorial Hospital. He weighed 8 pounds, 3 ounces at birth. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Hoegee of 515 Key Vista Drive.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vaughan of Sierra Madre. Grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Hoegee lives in Arcadia.

Parents for the third time are Mr. and Mrs. William P. Shaw of 1415 Hastings Ranch Drive, Pasadena. Their son, William Edward, was born October 13, at Santa Teresita Hospital, weighing 7 pounds, 2 ounces. He has two big sisters, Allison, 9½, and Marilyn, 12.

Grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. S. McGrane live in nearby Monrovia and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Shaw, Sr. live in Rancho Santa Fe.

Las Companeras Enthralled By Miss Muncy's Talk

November 2, found members of Las Companeras enthralled with Interior Decorator Mary Alice Muncy's talk on "Quick Trick in Decoration."

The vivacious speaker combined psychology and craft to present a spontaneously fascinating program. The meeting was held at the Flamingo in Arcadia, with president Mrs. Malcolm Murison presiding. The following guests were introduced: Sherry Spence, Carol Benedict, Jeanne Malsby, Betty Kerr, Mrs. Mudge, Ann Black, Yolanda Sneider, Jean Lundgren, Loween Mayer, Sue Meyers, Messrs. Queen and Turner, Janet Schmidt, Dorothy Ferguson and Joan Terry.

Program chairman, Mrs. Ronald Toms announced that the Christmas party would be held at a restaurant in San Gabriel. The December meeting will be a chartered bus trip to Farmer's Market for out-of-town Christmas shopping, followed by a luncheon.

Writing

The Poetry and Creative Writing Department will meet at 11:30 a.m., November 21, in Stratford House. Coffee and dessert will be served by hostess, Mrs. Paul Clarke. Miss Florence L. Bixby will give a paper on George Bernard Shaw and his writings. Original work will be read by the members. Miss Florence L. Swindell, director.

Letters to the Editor . . .

Dear Editor:

As membership chairman of the Friends of the Sierra Madre Library, I would like to thank you for the publicity which you gave to our recent membership drive Although new members are always welcome, th official drive is now over and we are pleased to announce a membership of 418 people, including 70 new members, and 72 junior members.

This enthusiastic response to the needs of our library is due to the support of many people, and we appreciate the part which you and the Sierra Madre News played in the success of the membership drive.

—MRS. CARL D. SIDLE

LONG'S DATE HOUSE
If your gift list contains anyone who dislikes eating, don't go to LONG'S DATE GARDENS. No — take it back — even old Uncle Scrooge himself would be won over by the countless date delicacies and gaily-packaged California goodies there, ready to tempt the most jaded appetites.
Melt-in-your-mouth dates, the non-candy confection, rolled, stuffed, or whole, taste like California itself. Or for variety try date butter, date nougats, date syrup, and date sugar. Eye-catching ceramic beehives contain a variety of honeys. Honey-sweetened preserves in gourmet flavors of tangerine pomegranate, fig-date, ginger-orange would catch your "taste-rating" with the boss or business acquaintance.
Nuts, choice halves shelled and ready for nibbling, for fruit cakes, for roasting, for sundaes (and the rest of the week too), may cause same agonizing indecision until you "compromise" and add a box — and then another for Auntie Mame (who's a little bit nutty herself).
Then there is fruit cake — bon-bon size to accompany ice cream, sherbet, or simply coffee. Choice dried fruits, or perhaps Sunland olives for those whose sweet tooth has been extracted.
Remember, just the postmark on a present from California conjures up a vision of date palms, fruit trees, and walnut groves. Imagine the delight when any or all of these mental mirages materialize with one of Long's select assortments ready for holiday mailing. Handy? On Foothill in Pasadena, just two blocks east of Sierra Madre Boulevard — SY 6-6360.

Presentation Of Rings To Seniors Held At Anoakia

Presentation of rings to the senior girls at Anoakia school's 35th annual ring ceremony was beautifully performed recently in Anoakia Hall.

Seniors wore traditional, full-length pink and blue gowns that they wore as juniors at last year's commencement. Joan Cheyovich, president of the senior class, spoke about the meaning of the Anoakia Coat of Arms. The Senior ring is gold with a gold coat of arms on a blue enamel background. After the seniors gave the pledge to the school, each girl lit a candle from the health of the school.

Senior rings were presented individually to the girls by Miss Hill, headmistress of Anoakia. Highlights of the candlelight ceremony were songs sung by the Junior Class and Anoakia Glee Club.

Seniors ended the evening by singing the Alma Mater. A reception was held immediately after the ceremony for students, faculty and guests, in the Peacock Room.

Scout Troop 508 Celebrates Birth Of Founder, Low

Monday afternoon, October 31, Sierra Madre Girl Scout Troop 508 celebrated the birthday of Juliette Low, founder of the Girl Scouts with a party using the "World Neighbors" theme.

A number of the girls wore authentic costumes representing different countries of the world and they all use the foreign language phrases they had learned in preparation for the party.

The theme was further carried out in the decorations, which included dolls and souvenirs from around the world. All of the preparation and learning contributed to earning the "World Neighbor" badge for the girls. The party ended on a Halloween note with the girls singing Halloween songs.

Recently this troop also served their community when they met at the home of Mrs. Lucy Young to prepart United Fund envelopes for mailing. When their work was finished, they all enjoyed a swim in the Young's pool.

David Schuepbach Completes Course

Army Private David G. Schuepbach, 19, son of Mrs. Eve Endlich, 101 Colleen, La Habra, completed a light vehicle driver course at Ft. Ord, November 4.

During the course, he was trained in the operation and maintenance of military vehicles up to and including the two and one-half ton truck. Instruction was also given in the operation of the internal combustion engine and chassis assembly.

He is the son of Chester Schuepbach, 102 S. Baldwin, Sierra Madre.

tender, loving care will be lavished upon them as they are repaired and then sent to the various Toy Loan centers to find new love from new borrowers.

Remember toy repair gives work and training to men and women trying to move out from welfare to independence.

If you can't take them in, in person, get them ready and call these Civic Club members for pick-up: Mrs. W. Holcomb, Toy Soldier chairman, 355-2575; Mrs. H. Jackson, Toy Loan chairman, 355-4488; Mrs. Helen Peterson, Toyrarian, 355-8568. Celebrate the new cottage extension by piling up a heap of toys for other children!

What Is A Coffee House?

coffee houses for young people all over the country and the increase of those centers as places of wholesome recreation and serious discussion has been so phenomenal that it indicates clearly a need has existed and in being met. In five years, the number of church-oriented coffee houses has grown from none to nearly 200 in 42 states, and the movement has spread to Canada, Australia and England. It is expected that there will be 1000 of these by the end of 1966.

What does it take to have a coffee house? People and a place, coffee and informality. The name is important—it sets the mood, provides the theme, the decor, and identifies the place. Some names which have been used are The Door. The Mug, The Jawbone (for jawing), Why? The Encounter, The Dialogue, The Gallows.

It's important, too, to know the age group of those who will be patrons—in this instance, teenagers, who will have different preferences for entertainment than students on a college campus, or adults. It also is important to compose a statement of purpose and rules, and conform with local rules about zoning, health and fire laws, etc.

Making a profit should be ruled out as a goal; most coffee houses for young people need some financial support from community or churches, but thinking up ways to raise a backlog or save pennies is part of the fun. You can have fashion shows sponsored by stores. You could have a benefit hootenanny to raise funds.

You also can hire yourselves to do the work of keeping the place clean and bright at $1.25 an hour, no more than two hours for any one person, in order to spread the gelt. It's wise to keep a chart and rotate chores and privileges.

Rent is a major cost, but decor can be strictly do-it-yourself. I know where either folding chairs or solid oak dining chairs can be bought for $1.50 each, but early scrounge mismatches coaxed from families and friends for free can be painted a flat black and look quite chic, the more interesting because of different shapes. Lights and spotlights can be made from tall cans pierced with interesting designs. Coffee mugs with members' names written in can be painted on the walls, or favorite song titles with black notes, or pictures of music groups and singers can be put up, or art or photos produced by members or a bulletin board with poems or limericks or items to trade.

Music is a must, of course, and perhaps members could have a drive to collect records. It would be nice to have part of the space set up for impromptu dancing. Have folk singers and groups come to perform, and pay them with coffee or coke and dessert or doughnuts. You can read poetry, your own or others. You can read anything out loud to the accompaniment of bongo drums—and then discuss it.

Games there should be, too; a couple of chess sets, for instance, for the brains in the crowd. You could capture an old pocket billiard table for playing pool. You could paint a set of squares on the floor, use the tops of coffee cans for checkers, or to play hop-scotch, boys against the girls, which is not all the same game as elementary school sidewalk hop-scotch!

Have books and magazines, of course. Hope that the place will succeed so well it can eventually be open after school every day so you can team up for homework, or just escape the family to cram in a quiet corner. (And remember, even if you have to start in a church room, you can cover church things with your kooky posters to put up and take down till you have a place of your own.)

You also can rent or borrow flicks. Matter of fact, you could even produce your own movie. You can, indubitably, have fun in a place of your own.

Why not have a coffee house in Sierra Madre?

SPORTS AS Hank Ives SEES IT

JR. ROSE BOWL DILEMMA AGAIN . . .

THE JAYCEES have summit decisons on their hands. Not only do they face a quandry as to their selection of a Western team for the Dec. 10 JRB classic, but the Eastern delegation is thinning rapidly.

LET'S TAKE A LOOK at the choices. Dennis Meredith will be sending out sample contracts to Fullerton (6-0-1), Laney (7-0), San Francisco (7-0), Pasadena (6-0-1), Santa Monica (6-0-1) and Fresno (7-1).

LOU PONTARELLI, the Eastern School Chairman, figures to ship the precious documents to Boise Ida.; Kilgore and Henderson, of Texas; Northeastern Oklahoma; Ferrum, Va.; Wilson, of Chicago; McCook, Neb. and Pratt, Kans. The problem in this area is that only Boise and Wilson sport perfect records. Boise figures to take lumps from Taft in a couple of weeks and Wilson plays a very weak schedule.

HENDERSON may well have a stronger team than the one that almost upended Fullerton last year. More than likely the Cardinals would be favored over any of the California elevens. It presents interesting problems for what looks like the "last" annual Jr. Rose Bowl Game.

SIERRA MADRE'S WALTER WEGST has been burning the midnight oil in his Sierra Meadow garage for weeks in preparation for the weekend of racing at Riverside. His preparation paid off in a fourth place finish among the amateur drivers who raced on the Saturday prior to the Grand Prix for sports cars. Walt tooled his Triumph around the tricky 3.275 mile course just like a pro.

TOM HAMILTON has been under fire for his desperate attempt to get a victory over Blair last week rather than settle for a tie. With his Bulldogs tied at 13-13 Hamilton elected to try for a first down in a fourth and five situation deep in his own territory. The plunge by fullback Mike Posa failed and the speedy Vikings hit the scoreboard with the winning points just as time ran out.

COMMENT: Hamilton's teams have successfully kept drives alive time and time again in the past several years by ignoring the "easy" punt and getting the first down. Percentages just caught up with him. It had to be one of the all-time great high school grid classics in this city.

OLD HANKUS took the gaspipe last week in the picking department. Imagine ten wins and ten losses. He should hide his head in shame. He dropped these selections off on the way to the funny farm.

PASADENA to slip past Glendale Friday night in the TV game of the week. The Lancers stayed alive with their 28-27 win over Ventura and are still sniffing roses. The vaqs can be tough and the Lancers should not take the game lightly.

MUIR to ride high on the mercury heels of Dave Buchanan for a victory over Glendale. All of the power in the Foothill Conference rests in Pasadena this year.

BLAIR not likely to lose their CIF playoff shot against Burbank. The Vikings will win with ease.

PASADENA'S Bulldogs, licking their wounds after losing to Blair, should reap revenge on Burroughs.

UCLA to bounce back with a win over Stanford and remain in the Rose Bowl picture. A big win the following week over USC would probably put brother Bruin back in the big saucer.

PURDUE headed for a Jan. 1 engagement (their first) should take the Minnesotas into camp . . . OREGON STATE to upset Washington . . . TEXAS A & M over Rice in a dandy grid clash . . . TEXAS over TCU.

HOUSTON to surprise Kentucky . . . . MICHIGAN over Northwestern . . . TENNESSEE to stop the Mississippis . . . CLEMSON over Maryland . . . SYRACUSE, bouncing back to edge Florida State . . . AIR FORCE to upset North Carolina . . . WASH. STATE, always hard to figure, should stop Arizona . . . OREGON, (Hankus picked them correctly once this year) to nudge Arizona St. . . . ARKANSAS to win the Texas clincher by three points over SMU.

TEXAS TECH to surprise Baylor . . . . THE RAMS over the New York Giants, providing they can locate the end zone.

HANKUS likes Cassius Clay to lower the boom on Cleveland Williams in about the eighth round in their heavyweight bout Monday night.

SM Swim Team

Nancy Rudolph broke her own old record of 52.4 for 11-12 fly with a 51.5 for 66 yards; Ronnie Krause came within 1/10th of a second of breaking his own breast stroke record of 50.8 in the 13 up classification.

Bringing home points for Sierra Madre by taking seconds were the following: Stephen Coate, Eric Skarin, Laura Hernandez (2), Scott McKenzie (2), Kathy Kurzweil, Alex McDonald, Leigh Jacobson (2), Deby Edwards, Pat Iffert (2), Paul Hendrix (2), Kim Franklin, Nancy Rudolph, John Cowan and Ronnie Krause.

White ribbon winners were the following: Dana Knickelbein (2), Joan Ball (2), Nigel Bladen, Debbie Knickelbein, Owen Lubow, Alan Acorn, Kim McKenzie, Roark Paschall (2), Lorraine Hernandez, Jennie Jacobson, Betsy Barnes, Ricky Rutledge, Peggy Bullard and Eric Skarin.

Coach Keith said the team was going to put on a crash program of working on turns and last 5-feet sprints, as that was where the team showed weakness in its last two meets.

Team Manager Chuck Knickelbein reminded all Booster Club Parents of the general meeting Wednesday, Nov. 9, at the Council Room of City Hall at 8 p.m.

More week-end water fun is available at Salton Sea Nov. 12 and 13, where the 6th Annual 500-mile National Championship Boat Race, with 150 participants after prize money of $25,000 will race from noon to 4 on Sunday, 10 a.m. until the winner is declared on Monday.

Car Safety Check To Be Held By Jr. Executives

Junior Executives, honorary service club at Pasadena City College, will stage its annual Car Safety Check on Saturday, November 19, on the Hill and Colorado parking lot from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., according to Julian Bender of Monrovia, chairman.

"We are sponsoring this free car check as one of our community service projects," says President Chris Gordon of Sierra Madre, "and are scheduling it a week before Thanksgiving with the theme 'Drive safe into the holidays'."

Club members will check the cars' high and low beam of headlights, tail lights, signals, condition of tires; and give a simple brake test, and a check on alignment.

Chairman Bender says, "We shall have a check list for each car. If any faults are found, the owner will be advised to take his car to a garage as soon as possible. He will also receive helpful brochures on safe driving from the AAA, the National Safety Council, and the Motor Vehicle Department.

Councilman Sorensen Fills In Time Lapse resulted in action by the Council in denying the right to trespass in The Little Santa Anita area for the purpose of building CHECK DAMS. Amendments to the original motion were made and reply sent to the LACFCD which resulted in certain modifications.

The Army Corps of Engineers and the LACFCD Engineers are qualified through years of experience and successful projects. They have now presented to the Council a Design Concept as the first step in the protections of the citizens of Sierra Madre as well as the residents of Arcadia. The council having taken the affirmative action has now PLACED THE CITY in the way of securing without direct expense to the local taxpayers — from funds provided by CONGRESS — either for ENGINEERING or CONSTRUCTION the enlargement of the RESERVOIR which was expressed by Councilman Wagner as a very desireable and necessary goal.

You, the citizens, may be thankful that a majority of the council were not ARROGANT WITH THEIR DISSENT. Individuals who are not charged with the right of DECISION for the community may take such an ARROGANT STAND. You will yet see the day when you will be thankful for the discussions which took place in that — HALF HOUR LATER — and which resulted in the MAJORITY ACTION OF THE COUNCIL.

SEVERIN L. SORENSEN

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following letter was received by the LACFCD which should be completely explanatory to all concerned.

Mr. Larry W. Adams
Acting City Administrator
City of Sierra Madre
55 W. Sierra Madre Blvd.
Sierra Madre, Calif. 91024

Dear Sir:

We are quite pleased with the City's acceptance of the concept of flood protection offered to the residents of the community under Federal appropriation. The resolution of the City Council on October 25, 1966, will make it possible for this office to fulfill its obligation to people of this County through the cooperation of the United States Corps of Engineers.

The Corps of Engineers will complete detailed contract plans and specifications for construction in 1967, and with the cooperation of your City Engineer, arrangements will be made to replace all existing City and private facilities and desired by the City under a betterment agreement.

We are appreciative of the time and interest taken by your community to inform themselves of the imminent danger to life and property posed by the hazard of floods.

Tomorrow is the day set aside to formally honor the greatmen of our country that have fought over the years to preserve the freedom of our country. They have kept this great nation of ours free from invasion. Our children have been allowed to grow up without dodging craters left by enemy bombs. They have never known fear that comes from experiencing the threatening sound of enemy aircraft overhead or the inconvenience of being rousted out of their homes in the face of enemy invasions.

Our fighting men have kept them safe and snug without thought of sacrifice of life and limb in a battle that seems never ending. They've kept their children safe so that they might one day grow up and fill their shoes in some foreign far off place — to repeat the battle of their forefathers.

We pray and hope that one day our men and boys will not have to think of war as a way of life just as we wish that the economy of our country needn't be dependent on wars to survive.

But as long as there are wars and as long as there are men they will fight to keep us safe. We should thank them every day of our lives for they can give us no greater gift!

October 29 was the day that Kimberly Kathryn Evans made her entrance into this world. She weighed seven poupds and nine ounces and I understand from a reliable and unbiased informer that she is just beautiful.

She is the daughter of Lt. and Mrs. Richard J. Evans (nee Kathy Griffith).

Her maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Griffith of Mesita Road and the paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Evans of Cooley Place in Pasadena.

Kimberly's father is presently stationed in Da Nang where he is commander of tme Combined Action forces.

She is the Evans' first child and the first grandchild on both sides. She will reside with her mother at the Griffith's home until her father returns from overseas.

Several families on our hill have had the pleasure of entertaining members of the cast of the "Sing Out '66 — Up With People, which is one of the three troops of the Moral Rearmament Group that are touring throughout the world.

If you have not had the opportunity to see and hear their show you will still have a chance as they are booked into the Pasadena Civic Auditorium on the evening of November 21 and they certainly hope for a sell-out house. As this group is privately sponsored they are badly in need of funds to continue their tour. The show is so unique and so inspiring it is a privilege to hear them.

Local families participating in housing them during their stay here last week were Mr. and Mrs. Don Hays who had Dave Carcia and Dave Domonique, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Christianson had Bob Rourke and Curtiss Green. Dr. and Mrs. Robert Mueller were hosts to Anita Romero, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hardison had Mary Ann Debower and Ginny Weick. Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Dunn entertained Jim DeGiralamo. The hosts were invited to a party given by their guests in the form of a concert in the Annandale Country Club last week.

If you haven't marked your calendar for the "Holiday Ports of Call," sponsored by the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary Church Council on Wednesday, November 16, by all means do it right this minute and then call Mrs. Donald Strasser at EL 5-9369 to reserve your ticket before it is too late.

The ladies have a real treat in store for you this year. The homes on the tour will be beautifully decorated to depict different holidays. They are all in one area and there will be a shuttle bus carrying the guests up and down the hill so parking will be no problem.

The homes on tour are those of Mr. and Mrs. Dom Giangregorio, Dr. and Mrs. P. J. Narcowich, and Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Fortier. There will be Thanksgiving goodies and refreshments at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Huber, and the Christmas Giftique and Bake Shop will be in our home.

The hours of the tour are from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. and all of the homes are in the Old House Road and Sierra Madre Villa Area. Come on up, we'll look forward to seeing you on the 16th.

Services Held For William Gowling

Services were conducted by the Sierra Madre Masons on Wednsday, November 2, at Ripple Mortuary, for William Edward Gowling, 92, who passed away Monday, October 31, following a lengthy illness. Originally from Marquette, Michigan, Mr. Gowling was a California resident for 60 years and a resident of Sierra Madre for 14 years.

Prior to his retirement, he was a train dispatcher for the Southern Pacific Railroad. In addition, he was a member of the local VFW, a 32nd Degree Mason and Shriner, a member of the Elks, a Spanish War Veteran, and a Purple Heart recipient.

He is survived by a son, John K. Goodall of Sierra Madre, and a brother, George W. Gowling of Mitchell, South Dakota.

Interment was at Ft. Rosecrans National Cemetery, Point Loma, San Diego, on Thursday, November 3.

What man hasn't hoped for a world-renowned Omega?

CHOSEN BY N.A.S.A. as standard issue for all astronauts in the epoch-making Gemini program... Omega is the watch the world has learned to trust. In fact, Omega watches were on the scene when the first American astronauts made their historic "space walks". Whether it's an astronaut's split-second chronograph or a watch for everyday wear, every Omega undergoes multiple quality-control inspections to assure peerless accuracy and maximum dependability. Even the oil used to lubricate each high-precision Omega is the world's costliest, assuring minimum friction and longer wear. To melt a lovely lady's heart or to win a gentleman's admiration... choose an Omega, the gift that stands for time itself. See our large selection, from $65 to over $1000.

Editorially Speaking . .

We Hesitate To Speak

A lot could be said about the recent decision of the City Council concerning the Sierra Madre Wash and its proposed "face lifting," but we hesitate to say too much, for as surely as we do, we would hurt someone's feelings, and all of us are just as concerned with the Wash as those that live on its banks.

We certainly give a hearty hand-shake to Del Comer, his wife and those who worked on the project for over two years. They did a marvelous job of trying to unravel the many hidden corners of the project, and although on the surface they failed to stop the forward move of the L.A. County Flood Control District and the Federal Government in their proposed expenditure of some $900,000, they did bring forth much knowledge for both the people that they represented and the City as a whole.

Personally, I was deeply saddened that they never did really receive the answers that they had asked for so many times, and I doubt seriously that had many, many more meetings been held, they would never have received the answers.

Ralph Brown, was another who worked tirelessly toward his beliefs in the project. Although in some respects he did win out in the fact that the work will be done on the wash, he and his workers were not competely satisfied that it is going to be done to the best advantage.

We do see the position of the Los Angeles County Flood Control District. They have been charged with the responsibility of flood elimination, the clearing up of hazards in the County, due to rain. To them it was a job that, in their engineering experience, had to be done. First they presented the plan that they thought to be the very best, the underground conduit. After meeting with the people of the area and the City Council, they abandoned the underground plan and attempted to save the open beauty of the channel as much as possible and come forth with a new concept. They had completed their work as far as they could go. Future expenditures of money were based on the approval or cooperation of the City Council, and at this point they were at a stand still until either rejected or approved.

Mr. Omar Hall, of the Los Angeles County Flood Control District was not derrogatory when he asked for a "Yes or No,' this was the position of the District, and they must either complete their work or move on to other appointed tasks.

We definitely believe that Councilman Wagner is right in the fact that the debris basin at the dam must have more capacity. We firmly believe Councilwoman Maddox when she stated that she did not feel that the concept, as stated, would protect the people of the area as presented.

We also have confidence and firmly believe that the L.A. County Flood Control District and the United States Army Corps of Engineers realize that without more capacity at the dam the project will not do the complete job that it is intended to do, and will, sometime during the time of the work of the project, make further studies and will come forth with further work.

Details concerning the construction has been left up to the City Engineer of the City of Sierra Madre in conjunction with the engineers of the Los Angeles County Flood Control District. It is our feeling that the District will cooperate with the City and its people in many respects to make the project as acceptable as possible.

Three Councilmen voted yes and put the project into operation. We can also see their side to their decision. First they had faith in the engineers of the U.S. Government and the District. Review of this situation must have given them the thought that through their experience they could not force the issue any further, but by cooperating they would receive the very best possible for their people, otherwise force could have had serious consequences.

We are sure that their feelings were that they did not want to be responsible, in the 10,000 to 1 chance that damage and loss of life could materialize. We are sure that they felt that "life was too short" to take on that long lasting responsibility. We, of course, do not know whether Sierra Madre and its people could be held responsible in the event of such a storm and such damages, but the moral obligation to the people below the area must have been a pressing pressure on these men. Not that we are implying that it was not the same for the two who voted no, for remember they were not voting "No," to the project as a project, just that they felt it would not do the job as indicated.

Yes, we are deeply saddened that our "Canyon Area" must be disturbed, it has taken care of itself for so long it seems a shame to upset it. We pulled for Del Comer and the Foothill Area Association, always hoping that every new day and with every new turned-up event that something would come up that would show those planning the project that "it really wasn't necessary" . . . But since we have very little left in that respect, let us have faith. Faith in those that are about to disturb us, that they will remember and respect our desires to the best of their engineering ability.

Now Is the Time

by Mary-Madeleine Lanphier

The community of Sierra Madre — and it is more than a city, with many on the other side of its city limits sending their children to school here and shopping here — is considered an ideal residential area for families with children. It offers almost everything desirable for the young in the way of educational facilities, including opportunities for special classes in music and arts, plus parks, a wide variety of sports, and the rare gift of small-town neighborliness combined with quick accessibility to larger-city cultural experiences. It offers everything, that is, except a good meeting-place for those in their teens which could duplicate the way the old-fashioned sweet-shop and soda fountain used to provide the chance for teens and their friends to gather and weigh the world (and the adults in it).

FREEDOM AT ANY PRICE

by
DR. HENRY V. WITTY

Management of this newspaper is not capable of answering questions to this column; however letters to the editor will be published and answers forthcoming from the writer. Articles are of the writer's

In 1963, we pointed out the danger imposed on our freedom by the existence of EXECUTIVE ORDERS. "Freedom At Any Price," August 1, 1963, contained the following lines: "By the issuance of 23 Executive Orders concerning emergency planning, President Kennedy has set the stage for a complete Executive takeover without consulting anyone, including the Congress of the United States.

". . . . The Question might well be asked: 'How could this be accomplished?' The President first proclaims a law and then legalizes it by publishing its content in the Federal Register. The Federal Register is a powerful document existing as a notification of official Presidential actions which assume the power of law 15 days after being printed." (end quote "Freedom At Any Price" 1963).

These existing Executive Orders legalize seizure by the President of nearly every phase of American life including communications media, electrical power, petroleum, gas fuels and minerals, food resources and farms, all modes of transportation including airports and aircraft.

Existing Executive Orders legalize mobilization of all citizens into work forces under government supervision and presidential takeover of all health, education and welfare functions.

Executive Orders 11087 through 11095 legalize the President's power to temporarily close Security and Exchange offices and suspend redemption rights, freeze stocks and bonds, "if required in the interest of maintaining economic controls."

In short, Executive Orders have removed all legal constitutional barriers to an Executive take-over if and when the President declares an "emergency." He, alone, can decide what constitutes an emergency!

The Congress of the United States still has the power to rescind the Executive Orders. Congress, as the law-making branch of our government, should establish a Joint Committee on Executive Orders to insure that what any President does in the way of law making is restricted to what the Congress, itself, says that he may do.

While we who live in California have been embroiled in an election donnybrook, events have been transpiring elsewhere. One such unheralded event, as reported by no less a journalistic personality than Chicago Tribune's Walter Trohan, involves the signing of Executive Order 11310 by President Johnson. According to Trohan, this Executive Order was published in the Federal Register on October 13, thus becoming law on October 28.

Trohan tells us: "Under the order, it would be possible to institute wage and price controls, RATIONING, civil defense programs, alien controls, border controls, and a host of wartime measures. The order does not proclaim a national emergency but paves the way for action on such a proclamation."

Continues Walter Trohan, "Johnson has denied any intention of instituting wage and price controls. The White House had said that no executive order had been issued when questioned early in the week by Representative James B. Utt (R, Calif.) Then on Thursday the order signed on Tuesday was published quietly in the government's official daily."

On last September 29, Ralph deToledano, writing for the Houston Tribune, said: "Robert Kitner, former president of the National Broadcasting Company, is the special assistant to President Johnson in charge of preparing the administartion's super-secret wage-price control program for introduction shortly after November 8th elections are completed.

"The planned hard-regulation of the country's economy includes the return to World War II type Rationing books. Copy for the books is ready for delivery to the printer."

Could this be true? If so — what price Great Society!

Must Sierra Madre teenagers go outside this city for fun or serious talk when they want to grow beyond the limits of family hospitality? Parents and youth leaders are expressing a growing concern lest they will be persuaded to do so, out of their own normal needs and the lack of a proper facility here. Whatever the budget problems of the city government, the needs of today's teenagers are not a sometime future thing for them: the tomorrow of another year or two can mean a whole shift in level for a large number of them, with college and work looming ahead.

Fortunately, teenagers, despite larger allowances and the increasingly materialistic outlook of their elders, are spiritual beings in the best sense of the word. It's the spirit of the thing which catches them, more than a luxurious setting; it's the time of maximum ideals, so the clinical textbooks say, of hero-worship, of sifting out values and shaping up fine designs for the brave, new world always needed. Perhaps it's this fervor which makes teens sometimes careless about crumbs and order, and why they are readily forgiven for this carelessness. But the talk and the meeting together must precede the doing, and even the longest phone conversations are not enough. Where in Sierra Madre shall teenagers meet?

It's fortunate, too, that the purveyors of spirit, our churches, have today a new awareness of the role of average people in accepting a responsibility to further the things of the spirit. At the same time, the clergy are themsleves seeking to have a more down-to-earth sharing in the everyday living problems of the people they hope to serve. Today, there are not only youth directors and youth programs in churches, but across the land churches are sponsoring "coffeehouse rendezvous" at various age levels.

Why couldn't we have a teen coffeehouse, non-denominational, here in Sierra Madre, until such time as there is a new youth center? Since teen clubs and coffeehouses, usually more successful, if decorated and run and at least partially supported by the young people themselves, still need the security of having an adult at hand to help with any difficulties which might arise, people from our various churches could take turns in helping to see that a coffeehouse runs smoothly. It's been done elsewhere. A couple of our own churches have already indicated interest.

Won't there be problems? Yes, but why not call them "challenges"? Once a church and parent committee has been set up and it joins hands with the Department of Parks and Recreation, the matters of curfew, and permit to meet, and insurance and so on can all be ironed out with the City Council. The publisher of the News is willing to work out a prize contest for letters and a name from teens, once the City Council has approved details. Let the young people themselves find the place, decorate it, help raise funds for it, make its rules, plan its programs.

While on the subject of teens speaking up for themselves, report is that many of them feel that the plans for the new youth center, result of conferences with leaders of younger children, do not meet their different activity needs. Seems they'd rather have a big barn, like in the old days of Sierra Madre, and be able to do the many things they'd like to explore. Now is the time for teenagers to write to Mr. Sam Simpson, chairman of the Parks and Recreation Commission, care of City Hall, and tell him what they'd like. (If they were enterprising, they could work out their own questionnaire and circulate it and tabulate results, couldn't they?)

Now is the time, too, to take action toward a meeting-place for present-time teen needs. If interested adults or teens will write to "Teen Coffeehouse," care of The Sierra Madre News, a first meeting can be planned — like, NOW.

Rev. Armin Hesse Continues November Series

Continuing his November series of sermons on the Old Testament Book of Malachi, the Rev. Armin Hesse will speak on the question "Is There Cause for Divine Reproof?" in the 10:30 Sunday morning worship service at Faith Lutheran Church, 845 Hastings Ranch Drive. Holy Communion will be celebrated during this service.

At 9:15, the young people and adults will assemble with the Sunday school pupils for Bible study classes. At 7 in the evening, the young people of the Walther League will conduct their monthly business and topic-discussion meeting, under the direction of Mr. Donald Hingst, the church's minister of Christian education and youth.

Parish events of the church calendar next week include: the monthly lecture on "Christian Parent-Child Relations," by Psychologist Norman Miller on Monday night at 8, for all parents; Sunday school staff meeting and the Junior Choir rehearsal on Tuesday evening at 7:30; Children's midweek religious school for grades 1-8 on Wednesday, 4 to 5:30; Midweek Bible Hour on Wednesday evening at 7:30; ladies' evening group meeting on Wednesday at 8:30; church-membership study class on Thursday for juniors at 4, and for adults at 8; and Senior Choir on Thursday at 8 p.m.

Ort Sabbath To Be Observed At Temple-Center

On Friday evening, Nov. 11, the National Ort Sabbath will be observed at the Foothill Jewish Temple-Center, 550 S. 2nd Ave., Arcadia. Not only does this organization aid the needy, but through its program of organization, rehabilitation and training it raises the poor and underprivileged to a station of independence and self-reliability. Over one million Jews as well as non-Jews have received its technical aid in over 22 countries.

Members of our community are invited to join in a tribute to this organization by joining at the services on Nov. 11, at 8:15 p.m. at the Temple-Center, at which time members of the Regina Trilling Chapter of Ort, including Mrs. Philip Schneiderman, president, and Mrs. Abraham Helfenbein, education chairman, will take part in the service. Ort members will also serve as ushers and as hostesses for the Oneg Shabbat (Sabbath Hour of Fellowship) following the service.

The topic for the sermon to be given by the Rabbi will be "Sufficient For His Need — In That Which He Lacketh."

Bridge

The Philanthropy Bridge Section of the Shakespeare Club will meet at 11:30 a.m. in Stratford House, Thursday, November 17. Mrs. Hobart Stephenson, Sr. is luncheon hostess. Instruction in bridge will be given at 12:45 p.m. by Mrs. Eileen Henrich. Mrs. A. J. Frederick, director.

Christian Science Lesson-Sermon

The Apostle Paul's declaration, "Ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you," is the Golden Text of this week's Christian Science Lesson - Sermon titled "Mortals and Immortals." The lesson will be read at all Christian Science services this Sunday.

Related readings from the denominational textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following:

"The manifestation of God through mortals is as light passing through the window-pane. The light and the glass never mingle, but as matter, the less is less opaque than the walls. The mortal mind through which Truth appears most vividly is that one which has lost much materiality — much error — in order to become a better transparency for Truth. Then, like a cloud melting into thin vapor, it no longer hides the sun."

Sermon Topic Announced By Rev. Howell

"People — His Interest" is the topic Rev. David Howell, pastor of th Sierra Madre Congregational Church, will consider at the 10 o'clock service on Stewardship Sunday, November 13. Mr. Howell will discuss Jesus' interest in what money does to and for character. Jesus knew that our financial habits shape our character and make us like or unlike God.

In anticipation of the Thanksgiving season, the anthem of the Chancel Choir, directed by Rev. Karl Beilstein, will be "Bless the Lord, Oh My Soul," by Ippolitof-Ivanof. The Hi Fi Choir under Mrs. Edward J. Murphy will sing Byles' "God Bless You."

Dr. Barnhart Announces Sunday Services

Dr. Ethel Barnhart will discuss "The Power of Love, Praise and Thanksgiving" at the Santa Anita Church, 226 W. Colorado Blvd., Arcadia at the 11 a.m. worship service Sunday, November 13. This Sunday service and those following will lay the foundation for a true Thanksgiving consciousness that opens the individual to the full power of harvest time. The public is cordially invited. Infant and child care is provided during the service.

Dedicated teachers are in charge of spiritual education in graded classes from kindergarten through eighth grade. All children are welcome.

For weekday activities call the church, 446-8206.

"Our ministry serves you day and night through our Dial - for - Prayer, 447-6162. The answers to all problems is in spiritual understanding," says Dr. Barnhart.

Mrs. Draper Phillips Named Host

here in 1948 after their post-war duty in the Far East. They have three daughters, Meredith is now a student at Wilson after attending Ascension School. Patricia, better known as "Patsy," was actually born in Korea, so her parents entertaining of foreign visitors has had special meaning for her. Patsy is now a sophomore at Pitzer College, one of the Claremont group.

Diane, graduate of Berkeley, is an airline hostess for United and so on her way to being an internationalist herself. She reports contact with young people from this area at her base in New York City. She has as roommate Kitty James, daughter of Charles James, a former mayor of this city, now deceased; Kitty is working for the publishers of Times-Life. And she sees something of Steve Evans, who'll be going to teach in Puerto Rico as a member of VISTA, and of Dick MacIntosh, of La Canada, who attended John Muir, is now attending Columbia, will soon go to Chine with the Peace Corps.

Mrs. Phillips considers her efforts as hostess a continuing personal education for herself, has had many fascinating experiences in the process of accompanying visitors on their appointments, cites the time she learned the intricacies of marketing and packing fine china when some of the foremost young executives from Japan held conference in the service building of a local department store. Sounds like she might have a book shaping up if she'll just keep a notebook.

They accompanied their parents on summer travel to Arrowhead, spent a week with Jack's sister in San Diego while their father and mother jaunted down to Encinada for a bit of Mexican color.

One of the 16 students at PHS who are studying Chinese is Marlene Juhl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Juhl of 400 N. Michillinda. This is Marlene's second year of Chinese, in which she gets A's; she hopes to use it in her future work, perhaps as a technical translater, though other possibilities keep opening up, so much so that the government is now offering scholarships to students of Chinese. Her sister Madelyn is a senior at PHS, plans to go to PCC, then go on to become a dental assistant. Their younger sister Marilyn goes to Wilson.

Also students at PHS are Sally and Jeff Driemeyer, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Driemeyer, 400 Fairview Terrace. Sally keeps on the Honor Roll for her scholarship; Jeff plays on the water polo team. Their younger brother Tom attends Don Benito. The whole family had a memorable vacation last summer; they went on an American Heritage tour of New York and Washington, and instead of crowding time by side trips such as Williamsburg, really did a thorough sightseeing job of our capitol, which both adults and children found enormously rewarding.

The Menu Story

by Frank P. Burke

This week's menu story is of Pasadena's newest supper club Gwinns West.

Their menu — both food and drink won an award at a recent restaurant convention in the east.

Daily complete dinners at $3.25 will satisfy you. But if you want to go on the a la carte route they really have it. Such appetizers as Pate Maison — Scampi Pertofino — Oysters Kilpatrick — Escargots — Etc., Etc.

Then for gourmet delights — try Dover Sole (with Shrimp — Oyster and Crab Meat in a white wine sauce with grapes).

Also on the left side (from the lakes and seas) Lobster Tails — Flaming Shrimp and others.

On the right side such choice gems as Veal Oscar — Chicken Kiev — Roast Duck — Prime Ribs and Flaming Shashlik will really tempt you.

My brother Jim and I worked with Mr. McMillan to produce one of the finest wine lists — We are justly proud that it WON AN AWARD.

Stop in and meet Martin McMillan and Jay Norman Gwinn. Tell them you read about their beautiful restaurant in the Sierra Madre News.

Next week we will journey east to Gwinns East; a LONG TIME FAVORITE for people who are not millionaires.

Remember — a day without wine is like a day without sunshine.

DRINK WINE.

Dry skin is not limited to any specific age group, nor is it a seasonal condition. Without exception it is perhaps one of the most annoying problems confronting our health conscious population today.

In an attempt to alleviate the symptoms of dry skin, people often seek the help of their next door neighbors. There is no group other than the physician, that is in a better position to recommend a good dry skin treatment, than the pharmacist.

Quite frequently your pharamcist will recommend a treatment for dry skin which has been used successfully by the medical profession over a long period of time. These products are commonly known as "over-the-counter-ethicals" and do not require a prescription.

If you or members of your family are afflicted with a dry skin probem — Ask Your Pharmacist. Always keep in mind, however, that dry skin accompanied with severe itching may be the sign of a serious problem and your physician should be consulted.

Our pharmacists at Hartman Pharmacy will be only too happy to give you the benefit of the experience we have gained through our study and practice of the art and science of Pharmacy. Come in and see us, we will really be glad to talk to you.

Now that the turkey shoot has had its trial run and the Chamber is planning to make it an annual affair, all the gals who are grousing about having to compete against the men can make plans to have it otherwise next time and arrange special rounds fairer to themselves. All kinds of possibilities exist for making this a gala autumnal event and suggestions will be welcomed by the C. of C. Probably the proudest of the turkey winners was Tom Edwards Jr., who is 14. (One of my lifetime highlights is the Thanksgiving when my then young son won us a turkey by selling subscriptions, at a time when it mattered budget-wise). Tom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Edwards of 246 E. Montecito Ave. His sister Debbie is working doggedly with our winter swim team, determined to help make a good showing in future meets with Pasadena. Both go to Wilson; little sister Janet attends Sierra Mesa. The whole family had a recent weekend at Palm Desert.

A Golden Wedding celebration for Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ramsey, 284 Arbolada Drive, Arcadia, was held Saturday, October 29 at the home of their daughter Dorothy, Mrs. Hollis Lindstrom, at 3820 Hampton Road, Pasadena. The couple, who were married in Santa Barbara, lived in Los Angeles until 12 years ago, have made many friends in the area since moving here.

Fifty guests attended the buffet dinner which was served in a dining room filled with gold roses, and climaxed by an elaborate wedding cake. The "surprise" part of the event was the unexpected reunion with many old friends which their daughter had thoughtfully arranged, and unusual for such an anniversary was the presence of a bridesmaid, Mrs. Gordon Bilharz of Alhambra.

Seems the only sensible thing to do is to start a notebook or a card file in order to keep tabs on all the things to do, and the sources of information and help. For instance, after long admiring the types of cactus which have exotic blossoms and no prickles, I've just learned that they are called "epiphyllum," that there is a society devoted to their culture, that one of our neighbors, Mrs. Alice Hawley, 313 Sycamore Place is secretary, and that it costs only $2 to join. The group meets in homes, probably trades slips of plants. Mrs. Hawley has over 150 plants around her home, says come and see them in May.

Don't forget, too, that there are various classes for gardeners at the Arboretum.

Sweet Adelines Open Drive For Membership

The Crown City Chapter of Sweet Adelines Inc., will hold its annual membership open house Tuesday, November 15, at 8 p.m. at the San Marino Congregational Church, 2560 Huntington Drive, San Marino. This is the opening of a membership drive and women who enjoy singing are cordially invited to attend this evening of harmony.

The "Shalimars" quartet, Sweet Adelines 1965-66 International Champions will be honored guests and will highlight the evening's entertainment. Others on the program are: the Crown City Chorus directed by Mrs. Donald Butzen, two chapter quartets the "Songbeams" and "Crown Chords." There will be community singing and Mrs. Butzen will teach the audience a song in four-part harmony, barbershop style.

Sweet Adelines is the largest women's singing organization in the world. There are 17,000 members throughout the United States (including both Hawaii and Alaska), Canada, Panama and chapters are presently being organized in Germany and Japan.

The Crown City Chapter meets every Tuesday evening in San Marino for rehearsal, singers are always welcome. It is not necessary to read music in order to qualify for membership. Further information may be obtained by calling Sierra Madre members: Mrs. Donald Williams, 355-8621 or Mrs. Otto Nass 355-6050.

Chamber of Commerce Plans Activities

tions for the first annual award for Citizen of the Year will go out December 1, with announcement of the selection to be made at the annual February dinner for installation of new officers. He added a suggestion that new streets be named after leading citizens, which will be considered. Robert Green added details and news from the nominating committee for new officers and replacements for vacancies on the board of directors.

Plans for merchants' Christmas promotion will be outlined to them by letter, with awards for windows to be continued, the new creche planned and the "Santa's Sleigh" trip for children on the Thursday and Friday before the holiday arranged for November construction so that the Yule season locally promises to be a lively one.

Of major interest to citizens was the appointment of a committee to shape up a questionnaire which would deal with such diverse items of public interest as ways to facilitate and regulate parking and insure police protection for it; how to improve the village image by cooperation and careful design of building remodelling, whether commercial floats should be permitted to enhance the July Fourth celebration, etc.

Warning was given about spurious phone calls to newcomers about which complaints have been received.

Present were president Delahooke, treasurer D. Boggio, secretary D. Underwood, recording secretary A. Herold, R. Green, L. Rudbach, J. Asher, W. Sullivan, J. Hall, J. Meade, B. Wightman, R. Thurston, W. Harriman, R. Hurwits, and guests J. Bids Opened Last Friday

Storm Drain Construction, Six Month Project Slated

Bids to build additional storm drain facilities in the Sierra Madre area were slated to be opened last Frday, November 4, according to Supervisor Warren Dorn.

Contractors were required to submit offers on two separate proposals involving various lengths of the projects.

Dorn said bids were unsealed in the offices of County Flood Control District Chief Engineer Walter J. Wood.

The Board of Supervisors will award a contract, based on funds available about 10 days after the opening.

Slated for construction are unit one of project 737 and project 7501.

Work on project 737 involves about 400 feet of reinforced concrete pipe which will be laid in Sierra Madre Blvd. from near Park Ave. to Arcadia Wash, Dorn said.

Project 7501 includes three lines which will be routed as follows:

Beginning in Sierra Madre Wash, about 100 feet south of the intersection of Woodland Dr. and Brookside Lane, running northwest in rights of way approximately 600 feet ot Orange Dr. and Canyon Crest Dr., north in Orange Dr. to Skyland Dr., west and north in Skyland for some 800 feet and west in rights of way for another 200 feet.

Starting in Sunnyside Ave. at Grand View at an existing drain, extending north in Sunnyside about 1500 feet to its terminus and continuing north for another 550 feet.

In Sierra Madre Blvd. from an existing project at Rancho Rd. to Mountain Trail Ave.

Construction is due to start within two or three weeks after the contract award and will take about six months to complete.

It will be financed from funds included in 1958 and 1964 bond issue programs, Dorn added.

The Turkey Shoot sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce was a lot of fun, I do not know whether they made much money, but what's money, just something that none of us keep very long, but the fun and enjoyment is something that we remember for a long time. It was well planned and well executed, we congratulated Jim Burke and his committee for the affair.

In closing the column for this week, I leave you with this one thought "The strange thing is that the theorists have never been able to explain why the United States, which has the highest advertising expenditure per capita in the world . . . also has the highest standard of living in the world and the greatest abundance of food that the world has eyer known." May God always keep it this way, I hope, I hope, I hope.

SM Students Participate In Sports

Wilth the Parks and Recreation Department of Sierra Madre adding soccer to sports activities available here for youth and backing the newly formed group of parents who are aiding our swim team, plus the long list of Sierra Madre students at PHS who are active in sports, it looks like the town will come to be known for its sports stars as well as the lngevity of its senior citizens and the fabled feats of the Search and Rescue Team.

Here is this year's list of resident students participating in sports at PHS:

"B" Football: Scott Brown, Michael Bullard, R. Wyatt Dietrich, John Duffy, Steven Grijalva, Mark Hatada, Richard Jordan, Chris La Lone, David Larson, Jeff Matakovich, David Peterson and Michael Raven.

Cross country: David Embree, Raoul Gagne, Don Hornbeck and Philip Van De Verg.

Water polo "A": Chris Cholewiak, James Goldman, John Nickoloff and Jay Reed.

Water polo "B": John Atkinson and Jeff Driemeyer.

Water polo "C": William Cameron, Carl Falco, Mike Hashitsume and Don Ross.

The season of the ringing phones arrives earlier in an election year. Mrs. James Englert (Karlene) of 429 Pleasant Hill Lane, not only had her home tapped as a polling place but was in there swinging on electioneering, had a coffee last week for Tom Elliott. She'll still be busy now that it's over, for son Paul goes to Sierra Mesa, Janie to S.M. Nursery School, and she is on the board of the latter.

Add to reminiscences about the volunteer firemen the stories about the Halloween party, in costume, which they once held. Elisa Clark, wife of Bobby could tell you about it, and about one pioneer day when some 35 firemen turned up dressed as raggamuffins, but equipped with snazzy derbies.

Proud parents are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Donovan, of 500 W. Grand View Ave., whose daughter Sallye, junior at Mt. St. Mary's College, was elected "National Sweetheart" of Alpha Delta Gamma fraternity, after being nominated by the chapter at Loyola University there. Sallye went to Denver for the fraternity's convention in late August, at which she was crowned. She is a former student of St. Rita's and Alverno Heights. Her sister Joan, who attended St. Rita's, Ramona High and PCC, is now married to Charles Apple, lives in Temple City, has four children, Paul, Laurie Ann, Suzie, Karen. Certainly seems the Sierra Madre mountain air produces beautiful girls, as well as the beautiful fruit of other years.

Remember that the first of the youth concerts presented by the Pasadena Area Youth Music Council will be held Sunday, Nov. 13 at Civic Auditorium. The 45-minute concerts, duplicated at 2 and 3 p.m., are not too long for small fry, one of the purposes of the organization being to further interest in symphony music among the young, but there are no reserved seats, so arrive early, pick up children promptly. Other goal of the group is to support the work of the Southern California Symphony Association.

Mrs. Robert Howard, 1115 Oakwood Pl. also served as a poll point, does her volunteer work at present at Methodist Hospital, is the in-service chairman for the Candystripers there. She enjoys the Candystripers particularly, since her own Janice is now 16. Daughter Andrea is 12, attends Foothill. The family had a summer trip to San Francisco. They've only been out here four years, from Ohio, agree that the first while is rather overwhelming, there is so much to do and see.

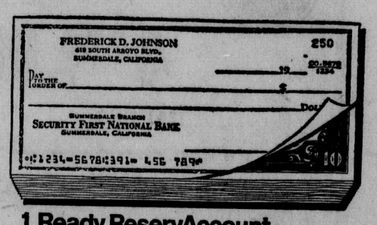
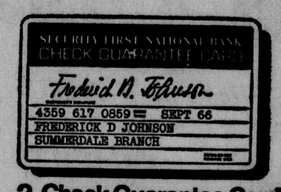
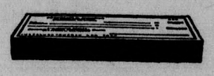
Only a Security Bank Solid Checking Account offers both:



1. Ready ReservAccount
The most flexible form of personal credit available. Security Bank's Ready ReservAccount keeps a cash reserve behind your checks that you can draw on just by writing your own personal check. All you need is approved credit.



2. Check Guarantee Card
Security Bank guarantees payment on personalized checks written by customers presenting this Card. The guarantee is good for cash or merchandise in all established businesses up to a limit of $100.00.



Ready ReservAccount and Check Guarantee Card add up to the most usable and flexible checking account offered anywhere. We call it the "Solid Checking Account."
